

GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY

Eine Sprechaufgabe kann ein Monolog sein – d. h. du sollst allein (und ohne Hilfe) eine gewisse Zeit lang möglichst zusammenhängend sprechen –, oder ein Dialog mit einer Partnerin / einem Partner. Unabhängig davon, welche Sprechaufgabe erledigt werden soll, ist es wichtig, zunächst die Angabe genau zu beachten und zu verstehen.

Darüber hinaus musst du in einer Dialogaufgabe auf jeden Fall auch passende Fragen stellen können.

In der folgenden Aufgabe übst du, richtige Fragen und „Sprachbausteine“ zu bilden, die man beim Einkaufen braucht.

These are ten short dialogues about buying and selling at a flea market (S = seller, B = buyer). You must know how to ask correct questions.

Fill in the right question. If you find this difficult, you can have a look at the box with all the questions on page 5.

1

S: We have a great Barbie swimming pool here.

B:

S: Only three euros.

2

B: I like these Pokemon figures.?

S: One euro each.

3

S: Good morning.?

B: I'm looking for a present for my little sister.

4

B: I like these Pokemon action figures. And they are only one euro?

S: Yes, one euro each.?

B: I think I'll take two.

5

B: I rather like this yellow T-shirt.?

S: It is medium. What size do you want?

B: Medium could be right.?

S: Certainly. There is a fitting room over there.

6

S: Good afternoon.?

B: I'm looking for a present for my little brother. What would you suggest?

S:?

B: He is five.

S: Then I think he would enjoy the Playmobile castle with knights. It is only four euros.

B: It's really nice. I'll take it.

7

B: I would like to buy this Nintendo TETRIS computer game.

.....?

S: It costs four euros.

B: That is too expensive.?

S: All right. I can offer it to you for three euros fifty cents.

.....?

B: Yes, okay. Here you are.

S: Thank you! Good bye.

8

B: This dinosaur model is rather sweet.?

S: You can have it for one euro.

B: That's okay. But I have only got a ten euro note.

.....?

S: No problem. Here's your change.

9

S: Good morning.?

B: I'd like to buy a T-shirt. I rather like the one over there. But it is not the colour I like.

.....?

S: Yes, I've got it in blue as well.?

B: Yes, please. Where are the fitting rooms?

10

B: Oh, I see you have got Enid Blyton books. I love "The Famous Five" series.
.....?

S: They are one euro fifty cents each.

B: Then I'll take all six of them.

S: Okay, here you are.?

B: Yes, please. It will be easier to carry them home.

These are questions that help you complete the dialogues.

You must use some of them more than once.

How much is it?

How much are they?

What size is it?

How many would you like?

Can I help you?

Would you like to have some?

Can I try it on?

Would you like to try it on?

How old is he?

Can you change that?

Have you got change?

What can I do for you?

Would you like a (carrier) bag?

Do you want it then?

Would you like to have it then?

Have you got it in another colour?

What are you looking for?

Can I have it for less?

What are you looking for?

Have you got different colours?

These are ten short dialogues about buying and selling at a flea market (S = seller, B = buyer). You must know how to ask correct questions.

Fill in the right question. If you find this difficult, you can have a look at the box with all the questions on the next page.

1

S: We have a great Barbie swimming pool here.

B: How much is it?

S: Only three euros.

2

B: I like these Pokemon figures. How much are they?

S: One euro each.

3

S: Good morning. Can I help you? / What are you looking for?

B: I'm looking for a present for my little sister.

4

B: I like these Pokemon action figures. And they are only one euro?

S: Yes, one euro each. How many would you like? / Would you like to have some?

B: I think I'll take two.

5

B: I rather like this yellow T-shirt. What size is it?

S: It is medium. What size do you want?

B: Medium could be right. Can I try it on?

S: Certainly. There is a fitting room over there.

6

S: Good afternoon. Can I help you? / What can I do for you?

B: I'm looking for a present for my little brother. What would you suggest?

S: How old is he?

B: He is five.

S: Then I think he would enjoy the Playmobile castle with knights. It is only four euros.

B: It's really nice. I'll take it.

7

B: I would like to buy this Nintendo TETRIS computer game. How much is it?

S: It costs four euros.

B: That is too expensive. Can I have it for less?

S: All right. I can offer it to you for three euros fifty cents.

Do you want it then? / Would you like to have it then?

B: Yes, okay. Here you are.

S: Thank you! Good bye.

8

B: This dinosaur model is rather sweet. How much is it?

S: You can have it for one euro.

B: That's okay. But I have only got a 10 euro note. Can you change that? / Have you got change?

S: No problem. Here's your change.

9

S: Good morning. Can I help you? / What are you looking for?

B: I'd like to buy a T-shirt. I rather like the one over there. But it is not the colour I like. Have you got it in another colour? / Have you got different colours?

S: Yes, I've got it in blue as well. Would you like to try it on?

B: Yes, please. Where are the fitting rooms?

10

B: Oh, I see you have got Enid Blyton books. I love “The Famous Five” series.

How much are they?

S: They are one euro fifty cents each.

B: Then I’ll take all six of them.

S: Okay, here you are. Would you like a (carrier) bag?

B: Yes, please. It will be easier to carry them home.